

INDEX

- A BOLITION Societies, established in Tenn., 1814, 46.
 Adams, Prof. Herbert B., pioneer work of Jared Sparks, 69.
 Adams, John, member of the Continental Congress, 21; records the resolution of congress, declaring the Colonies free and independent, 27; letter to Charles Holt, Sept. 4, 1820, 307; receives majority of votes for vice-president of U. S., 437; informed by official messenger of his election, 438; his journey to N. Y. and arrival, 448.
 Adams, John Quincy, address at the fiftieth anniversary of the inauguration of Washington, 458.
 Adams, Samuel, member of the Continental Congress, 21.
 Agobart, manuscript works of, 247.
 Alamares, battle of, 43.
 Albany, N. Y.: boats built for Washington at, 1781, 57; Cortlandt's regiment at, 59.
 Alexander, Prof. E., history of the state of Franklin, N. C., 82.
 Algonquin Indians, not mound builders, 200.
 Allan W., two unpublished letters of Washington contributed by, 241.
 Amaraca, a remote country discovered by Columbus, 78.
 America, the first free government, the first church, and the first institution of learning in, 43; an Englishman's pocket note book in 1826, what he saw in, 61, 123; origin of the name, 78; the Fair-faxes in, 81; discovery of the name of, noticed, 85; genealogical research in, 161; discovery of by Northmen, noticed, 256; first Lutheran church in, 336, 337; the stamp act, 1765, repealed, 409; beginning of science in, 422; narration and critical history of, vol. V., noticed, 429; the Norse discovery of, 511.
 American Amateur Athletic and Aquatic History, noticed, 518.
 American Biography, vols. IV. and V., noticed, 87, 520.
 American Fishes, noticed, 164.
 American Literature, library of, vols. I-IV., noticed, 510.
 American politics, 1789-1888, noticed, 431.
 American Revolution, first blood shed in the, 20; Virginia and Mass. in the, 20; first meeting of the Continental Congress, 21; surrender of Lord Cornwallis, 23; organization of the army, 24; Washington appointed commander-in-chief, 24; the declaration of independence, 26; the alliance with France, 30; services of Count Pulaski and Kosciusko, 31; De Kalb, Steuben, Lafayette, 32; boats built for Washington at Albany, N. Y., 1781, 57; condition of the army, Aug., 1781, 58; the states fail to send their quota of militia, 58; Valentine's Hill, N. Y., to be fortified, 59; movement of British troops, 59; the British reinforce N. Y., 59; attempt to capture Gov. William Livingston by the Hessians, 178; the Declaration of Independence in Savannah, Ga., 202; ships and troops at the beginning of the, 249, 337; campaigns of Gens. Carleton and Burgoyne, 1776-1777, noticed, 253; journal of Gen. Parsons on the charge of treasonable correspondence during the, 286; a Boston newspaper of the, 309; houses in N. J. during the, 325; letter of W. Heron to Sir Henry Clinton, March 4, 1782, 329; relics of the battle of Harlem Heights, 334; services of the Massachusetts militia, 410, 412; call for troops during the, 410; strength of Gen. Burgoyne's army, 412; French fleet attack Newport, R. I., 412; roster of Capt. Rumph's company, 416; the declaration of independence, 480; Virginia state navy, 1782, 505; German bibliography of the, 511; history of the society of the Cincinnati, noticed, 518; the centennial of the, noticed, 518.
 Ames, Fisher, letters to George R. Minot, on the inaugural of Washington, 1789; and organization of the federal congress, 434, 435, 456; member of the federal congress, 443, 445.
 Amory, Thomas C., Charles River, a poem, noticed, 341.
 Andrews, E. Benjamin, brief institutes of general history, noticed, 165.
 Andrews, Rev. Israel Ward, third president of Marietta College, 190.
 Anglo-Americans, the, 495.
 Antoinette, Marie, the city of Marietta, Ohio, named in honor of, 172.
 Appleton, D., American Biography. Vols. IV. and V., noticed, 87, 520.
 Armstrong, Katherine, the Anglo-Americans, 495.
 Arnold, Gen. Benedict, ancestry of, 78.
 Atkinson, William P., the Study of Politics, noticed, 342.
 Authors, famous, 158.
- B BABES of the Year, poems, noticed, 520.
 Backus, Elijah, pioneer of Ohio, purchases an island, 186.
- Bacon, William J., the Continental Congress, 17.
 Baird, Rev. Charles W., La Rochelle, France, 76.
 Baldwin, Abraham, member of the federal congress, 444.
 Baptists, early history of, 159.
 Barras, Count de, informs Washington of the departure of Count de Grasse, with fleet and troops for Chesapeake, 60.
 Bassett, Richard, member of the federal congress, 442.
 Battle, K. P., the objection to the federal constitution in the N. C. convention of 1788, 82, 425; the conduct and motives of the regulators, 82.
 Baxter, James Phinney, the campaigns of Gens. Carleton and Burgoyne 1776-1777, with journal of Lieut. William Digby, noticed, 253.
 Bayard, James A., mentioned, 442.
 Bean, Mrs., captured by the Indians, 67.
 Beckman, Lieut. Tjerck, journal of the expedition of Gen. Sullivan against the Six Nations of Indians, 1779. James R. Gibson, Jr., 128.
 Before the Dawn, noticed, 256.
 Bell, Charles H., History of Exeter, N. H., noticed, 88.
 Belamy, Edward, Looking Backward, noticed, 341.
 Bender, Prosper, financial and business condition of; results of national protection, 210; a new France in New England, 387; holidays of the French Canadians, 467.
 Benjamin, William Everts, letter of W. Henon to Sir Henry Clinton, March 4, 1782, contributed by, 329.
 Benson, Egbert, member of the federal congress, 445.
 Berkel, Peter John van, and his daughter, 80.
 Bicycle, around the world on a, noticed, 431.
 Bigelow, John, France and the Confederate Navy, 1862-1868, noticed, 167.
 Birds, poems on favorite, noticed, 520.
 Blake, Mary Elizabeth, History of Mexico, noticed, 254.
 Bland, Theodore, member of the federal congress, 443.
 Bleeker, Major, at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 452.
 Blennerhassett, Harman, purchases an island, ancestry of, 186; mansion of, 187.
 Book of Notices, July.—St. Bris's Discovery of the Name of America, 85; Wisconsin Historical Society Collections, Vol. X, 84; New Haven Colony Historical Society

- Papers, Vol. IV., 86; Brooks' Abraham Lincoln, 86; Guild's Britons and Muscovites, 86; Tompkins' Bibliotheca Jeffersoniana, 86; Stuart's Narrative of the Movement in Virginia to re-establish Peaceful Relations between Northern and Southern States, 1865, 87; Mitchel's Biography of Ormsby MacKnight Mitchel, 87; Appleton's Cyclopaedia of American Biography, Vol. IV., 87; Bell's Exeter, N. H., 88.
- August.*—Goode's American Fishes, 164; Bourinot's Manual of the Constitutional History of Canada, 164; Stoddard's Lives of President Harrison, Tyler and Polk, 165; Andrew's Brief Institutes of General History, 165; Green's English People, 165; Stern's Constitutional History of the U. S., 166; abstract of the Proceedings of the Va. Company of London, 169-170; Va. Historical Society Collections, Vol. I., 167; Indiana Historical Society Pamphlets, No. 4, Louther's Defeat, 167; Bigelow's France and the Confederate Navy, 1862-1868, 167; Sheldon's Yankee Girls in Zulu Land, 167; Müller's Science of Thought, 168; How to Judge of a Picture by Van Dyke, 168; Darling's Memorial to my Honored Kindred, 168; Carr's Missouri, 168.
- September.*—Baxter's Campaigns of Gens. Carleton and Burgoyne, 1776-1777, with journal of Lieut. William Digby, 253; Hill's Social Influence of Christianity, 253; Lowell's Political Essays, 253; Hunnewell's Charlestown, Mass., 254; Blake and Sullivan's Mexico, 254; Water's Shakespeare, 255; Peabody's Harvard Reminiscences, 255; Donaldson's Catlin Indian Gallery, 255; Dulac's Story of Paris, 256; Horford's Discovery of America by Northmen, 256.
- October.*—Lodge's Federalist, 340; Shepard's Life of Martin Van Buren, 340; Forman's Journey down the Ohio and Miss., 1789-90, memoir and notes by Lyman C. Draper, 340; Trail's Studies in Criticism, 341; Amory's Charles River, a poem, 341; Bellamy's Looking Backward, 341; Atkinson's Study of Politics, 342; Pheasant's Tennessee, 342; Kennedy's Mormonism, 343; Perrin's Pioneer Press of Ky., 343; Chambers' School History of U. S., 344; Brisbin's Trees and Tree-planting, 344; Kieffer's Recollections of a Drummer Boy, 344.
- November.*—Winsor's America, Vol. V., 429; Johnson's War of Secession, 430; Hewes' Atlas of American Politics, 431; Stevens' Around the World on a Bicycle, Vol. II., 431; Ellis's Puritan Age and Rule, 432.
- December.*—McCulloch's Men and Measures of half a Century, 516; Conway's Edmund Randolph, 516; Hawley's Ecclesiastical History of Newfoundland, 517; Ryan's Ohio, 517; Schuyler's Society of the Cincinnati, 518; the Centennial of a Revolution, 518; Craigie's John Anderson and I, 518; Janssen's Athletic and Aquatic History, 518; Stedman and Hutchinson's Library of American Literature, vol. I.-IV., 519; Days Serene, 519; Favorite Birds, 520; Babes of the Year, 520; Appleton's American Biography, vol. V., 520; Boone, Daniel, early settler in East Tennessee, 43; Booth, Benjamin, tory lawyer, character of, 62; Boston Mass., in 1741, 368; map of the harbor of 1732, 368; British troops at, 409; the massacre at, 1770, 409; British prisoners at, 412; Bodinot, Elias, member of the federal congress, 444; Bourinot, John George, manual of the constitutional history of Canada, noticed, 164; Brewer, William A., origin and history of the ruling machine, 242; Brigham, Rev. A. P., the geological history of Oneida Co., N. Y., 81; Brisbin, James S., Trees and Tree-planting, noticed, 344; Brisbin and Muscovites, noticed, 86; Brock, R. A., abstract of the proceedings of the Va. Company of London, introduction and notes by, noticed, 167; Brooks, Noah, life of Abraham Lincoln, noticed, 86; Brown, Marie A., the Norse discovery of America, 511; Buckingham, Rev. Jedidiah, the first preacher at Orange mountain, 426; Buerrey, Rev. F. F., the Lutheran church in New Netherlands, 512; Bull, Frederick, advertisement of his wares, 2775, 157; Burgoyne, Gen. John, campaign of, 1776-1777, noticed, 253; number of troops, under the command of, 1777, 412; Burke, Edanus, member of the federal congress, 443.
- CADWALLADER, Lambert, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Calvert Papers, the, 324.
- Campus Martius, Ohio, view of, 180; description of, 182.
- Canada, manual of the Constitutional History of, noticed, 164; financial and business condition of; results of national protection, Proser Bender, 219; the French emigration from to New England, 387; holidays of the French in, 461.
- Canning, E. W. B., incidents of border life in Ohio, Louis Wetzel, 121.
- Canning, Elizabeth, marriage and family of, 79, 250.
- Cape Francois, fleet of Count de Grasse at, 60.
- Carleton, Gen. Thomas, campaign of, 1776-1777, noticed, 253.
- Carpenters' Hall, Phila., Continental Congress meet in, 21.
- Carr, Lucien, History of Missouri, noticed, 168.
- Carroll, Charles, member of the federal congress, 441.
- Carroll, Daniel, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Cass, Gen. Lewis, lays foundation stone of Marietta College, 190; services of, 422.
- Cathcart, Lord, prevents the capture of the correspondence between Washington and Gov. Livingston, 221.
- Catlin, George, Indian gallery, noticed, 255; escape from a burning prairie, 240.
- Chamberlain, Mellen, services of Jared Sparks to American history, 13.
- Chambers, Henry E., School History of U. S., noticed, 344.
- Charles River, a poem, noticed, 341.
- Charlestown, Mass., social life in, 252; history of, noticed, 254.
- Chase, Salmon P., services of, 507.
- Chatham, Lord, friend of the American colonies, 17; his opinion of the Continental Congress, 18.
- Cherokee Indians, mound builders, 65, 66, 194; expedition against the, 82.
- Chess, the morals of, 427.
- Chicago Historical Society, October meeting, paper on the Norse discovery of America, by Marie A. Brown, 511.
- Christianity, the social influence of, noticed, 253.
- Churches, first built on this continent, 336.
- Cicero, manuscript works of, 247.
- Clinton, Gov. George, receives Washington in N. Y., 1789, 449.
- Clymer, George, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Coles, Isaac, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Comal River, Texas, views on the, 259, 359.
- Common Prayer, book of, classic style of, 328.
- Confederate Navy, France and the, 1862-1868, noticed, 167; the purchase of the steamer Trent for the, 504.
- Conkling, Roscoe, portrait, 89; sketch of, Isaac Smith's Hartley; views of his home in Utica, 92, 95, 97, 101.
- Connecticut, appoints delegate to the Continental Congress, 22; emigrants to, establish the first free government, 441; number of troops furnished to the army, Aug. 1781, 58; militia arrives from, 66; representatives of, in the federal congress, 440, 444.
- Connecticut Historical Society, annual meeting, election of officers, 160.
- Contee, Benjamin, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Conway, Moncure D., origin of the phrase the father of his country, 494; Life and Papers of Edmund Randolph, noticed, 516.
- Constant, S. Victor, petition prohibiting the use of fire-arms in N. Y. City, 1793; contributed by, 245.
- Continental Congress (the), William Y. Bacon, 17; origin of the, 20, 21; delegates appointed to, 21, 22; organize, 22; opens with prayer, 22; members of, God-fearing men, 23; appoints days of fasting, 23; attends church in a body, 23; addresses to the people and King of Great Britain, 23; elect George Washington General of the army, 24; action of

- the, on the Declaration of Independence, 27, 28, 29; passes the articles of confederation, 32; the ordinance of 1787, 33; approves the federal constitution, 34; last meeting of, 35.
- Correth, Count, portrait, 265.
- Cortland, Col. Philip, part of regiment at Albany, 1781, 59.
- Craigie, Mary E., John Anderson and I, noticed, 518.
- Crane, W. C., letter of Montcalm, 1744, contributed by, 75.
- Criticism, studies in, noticed, 341.
- Curry, J. L. M., a chapter in the history of Spain, in relation to American affairs, 48.
- Curtis, George William, character and services of Washington, 460.
- Cushing, Thomas, delegate to the Continental Congress, 22.
- Cutter, Rev. Manasseh, agent of the Ohio company, 176; extract from his diary, 180.
- DAKOTAN Indians, mound builders, 200.
- Dalton, Tristam, member of the federal congress, 440.
- Dane, Nathan, delegate to the Continental Congress, introduced the section in the ordinance, 1787, prohibiting slavery in the territory northwest of the Ohio river, 34.
- Darling, Charles W., memorial to my honored kindred, noticed, 168.
- Dawes, E. C., letters of Gen. Tallmadge to Gen. Putnam, 246; Gen. Rufus Putnam to Gen. Tallmadge, contributed by, 332.
- Days Serene, noticed, 519.
- Declaration of Independence, 27, 28, 29, 479.
- Decoration Day, origin of, 83; a poem, R. H. Stoddard, 149.
- Dedham Historical Society, annual meeting, election of officers, 82.
- DeKalb, Baron de, services in the Revolutionary War, 32; his death, 32.
- DeLancey, Peter, mentioned, 441.
- Delaware, appoints delegate to Continental Congress, 22; Indian mound builders, 65, 68, 190; representatives in the Federal Congress, 442.
- Depew, Chauncey M., origin of Decoration Day, 83.
- De Peyster, Johannes, protests against the calling of a second minister of the Dutch Church in N.Y., 154.
- Digby, Lt. William, journal of the campaign of 1776-1777, noticed, 253.
- Doak, Rev. Samuel, establishes a church, 44, 45.
- Dockery, Claudius, criticism of the historical opinions of Gov. Gabriel Johnston, 82.
- Dodge, Tristam, ancestry of, 159.
- Donaldson, Thomas, the George Catlin Indian gallery, noticed, 255.
- Dracut, Mass., militia of, prior to the Revolution, 409; re-organize, 1774, 410; services of the militia in the Revolution, 409, 412.
- Draper, Lyman C., memoir and notes of Forman's journey down the Ohio and Mississippi, 1789-90, noticed, 340.
- Duché, Rev. Jacob, opens the Continental Congress with prayer, and receives the thanks of Congress, 22.
- Dulac, George, Before the Dawn, noticed, 250.
- Dummer, Charles Holt, unpublished letter of Charles Holt, and John Adams, contributed by, 304.
- Dunn, John, tory lawyer, character of, 82.
- Dutch Church, N. Y., the remonstrance of, against the protests of Samuel States, Johannes De Peyster and Johannes Kersbeke, regarding the calling of a second minister to the, 152; the protest of the latter, 154.
- EATON John, fourth president of Marietta College, 190.
- Education, the Constitution and the Ordinance of 1787, their relation to, 224, in England, 250.
- Ellenborough, Lord, anecdote of, 76.
- Ellis, Rev. George E., the Puritan Age and Rule, noticed, 432.
- Ellis, Mary, petition of, for collection of a debt, 1790, 420.
- Ellsworth, Oliver, member of the Federal Congress, 440.
- Elmer, Jonathan, member of the Federal Congress, 442.
- Emancipator, the newspaper established, 47.
- Embree, Elihu, establishes the newspaper the Emancipator, 1820, in Tenn., 47.
- Emmet, Thomas Addis, M.D., letters from the collection of, contributed by, 435, 436.
- England, opposed to loans, benevolences, and ship money, 17; no subject of, to be taxed but by his own consent, 17; the Cabinet and Parliament of, charged with nepotism and venality, 18; provides officers for the government of the Colonies in America, 20; education in, 250; authors of, 1758, 497.
- English People, history of, noticed, 86.
- Erskine, Lord, the character of Washington, 26.
- Exeter, N. H., history of, noticed, 88.
- FAIRFAX family in America, 82.
- Faneuil Hall, first used, 369.
- Father of His Country, origin of the phrase, 494.
- Federal Congress, meet at N. Y., 434; organization of, 435, 436; count the votes for president and vice-president of U. S., 436; the members of, 440, 442, 444, 445; furniture used by, 443; resolutions respecting the inauguration of Washington, 445; report of the committee on the inaugural of Washington, 450, 452; elect Bishop Provost chaplain, 451; order for the inauguration and reception of Washington, 452; Washington takes the oath of office in the presence of the, 455; accompanies the president to St. Paul's Church, 449.
- Federal Constitution, ratified, 34.
- Federal Hall, N.Y. city, cost of, 434; view of, 439; the inauguration of Washington, 1789, in, 455; section of the railing of, 455; rebuilt from the old city hall, 492.
- Federalists, the, noticed, 340.
- Ferguson, Clement, the New England Primer, 1690, 148.
- Few, William, member of the federal congress, 440.
- Fish, Maj. Nicholas, commands part of the 2d N. Y. regiment, 60; Nicholas, at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 452.
- Fiske, John, American Biography, noticed, 87, 520.
- Fiske, Rev. Samuel, sermon on the death of Joshua Spooner, 313, 424.
- Fitzgerald, David, Juan Manuel De Salcedo, 159.
- Fitzsimmons, Thomas, member of the Federal Congress, 444.
- Flint, Rev. Timothy, mentioned, 62.
- Floyd, Gen. William, delegate to the Continental Congress, 22, to the Federal Congress, 445.
- Forman, Maj. Samuel S., journey down the Ohio and Miss., 1789-90, noticed, 340.
- Fort Harmar, Ohio, view of, 177; erected, 178.
- Fort Massachusetts, the site of old, D. D. Slade, 281; view of, 282.
- Fort Loudon, erected, 66.
- Fort Washington, Ohio, established, 179.
- Fowler, Joseph S., East Tennessee one hundred years ago, 43.
- Franklin, Benjamin, delegate to the Continental Congress, did not suggest the opening of Congress with prayer, 22; one of the committee on the Declaration of Independence, 27; the morale of chess, 417.
- Franklin House, N.Y. City, home of Washington, 445, 450.
- Franklin, N. C., history of the state, 82.
- Franks, Lt.-Col., at the Inauguration of Washington, 1789, 452.
- France and the Confederate Navy, noticed, 1862-1868, 167.
- French, Gen. Benjamin, services of, 508.
- French Canadians, holidays of the, Proper Bender, 461.
- French colony, the, of San Domingo, its rise and fall, 471.
- French emigration from Canada to New England, 387.
- Friedrich, Carl, Prince of Solms-Braunfels, portrait, 263; organizes German colony to settle in Texas, 264; ancestry of, 267; his report of the settlement, 271; view of the home of, 305.
- GALLATIN, Mrs. Albert, mentioned, 443.
- Gale, George, member of the Federal Congress, 443.
- Garrison, William Lloyd, his interest in the abolition of slavery, confined in prison, 47.
- Genesee country, N. Y., the opening of the, 161.
- Genius of Universal Emancipation*, (the) newspaper, established, 47.
- George III., called the father of his country, 494.
- Georgia, appoints delegates to the Continental Congress, 22; mound builders in, 66, 195; representa-

INDEX

- tives of, in the Federal Congress, 442, 444.
 Germany, emigrants from, settle in Texas, 257.
 Gerry, Elbridge, member of the Federal Congress, 445.
 Ghent, the treaty of, Thomas Wilson, 372; residence of the American commissioners in, 373.
 Gibbon, Edward, character of, 248.
 Gibson, James R., Jr., Journal of Lieut. Beckman of the expedition of Gen. Sullivan against the Six Nations of Indians, 1779, 198.
 Gilliam, Prof. A. W., the French colony of San Domingo, its rise and fall, 471.
 Gilman, Nicholas, member of the Federal Congress, 444.
 Gleig, Rev. George Robert, death of, 247.
 Goode, G. Brown, American Fishes, noticed, 164.
 Goodhue, Benjamin, member of the federal Congress, 445.
 Gothic, Procopius de Bello, Greek manuscript of, 247.
 Grant, Jonathan, member of the Federal Congress, 445.
 Grant, Gen. U. S., personal recollections of, Charles K. Tuckerman, 109.
 Grasse, Count de, leaves Cape Franco with fleet and troops for Chesapeake Bay, 60.
 Gratiot, Charles, sketch of, 76.
 Gray, Harrison, mentioned, 443.
 Great Germany, Texas, settlement of, 257.
 Green, John Richard, history of the English people, noticed, 166.
 Greene, Gen. Nathanael, dance at the quarters of, 1779, 247, 325; occupies the Van Veghten house, 325.
 Greene, Gov. William, urged by Washington to furnish militia for the defense of Newport, 1781, 59.
 Griffin, Samuel, member of the Federal Congress, 443.
 Guild, Curtis, Britons and Muscovites, noticed, 86.
 Gunn, James, member of the Federal Congress, 442.
 Gwinnett, Button, autograph of, 77.
- HALL, William, Peter John Van Berkel and his daughter, 80.
 Hamilton A. Boyd, East Tennessee one hundred years ago, 500.
 Hamilton, Alexander, member of the Continental Congress, 35; commands part of the second N. Y. regiment, 60; at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 455.
 Hampton Roads, Va., British troops at, 59.
 Hancock, John, signer of the declaration of independence, 92.
 Harby, Lee C., The City of a Prince, a romantic chapter in Texas history, I., 257; II., 345.
 Harlem Heights, N. Y., relics of the battle of, 334.
 Harrison, Mrs. Burton N., the Fair-faxes in America, 81.
 Harrison, William Henry, ancestry of, 179; his marriage, 179; anecdote of, 180; life of, noticed, 165; the campaign of, 180, 252.
 Hartford, Conn., adopts a constitution, 1638-9, 44.
- Hartley, Rev. Isaac Smithson, sketch of Roscoe Conkling. His home in Utica, 89.
 Harvard University, reminiscences of, noticed, 255.
 Hathorn, John, member of the federal congress, 445.
 Hayes, Rutherford B., anecdote of, 162.
 Haywood, Oliver, thirteen not an unlucky number, 424.
 Hazard, Ebenezer, postmaster-general, 449.
 Herold, Rowland G., death of, 321.
 Heister, Daniel, member of the federal congress, 444.
 Hempstead, Ray, Gov. Juan Manuel, 78.
 Henry, John, member of the federal congress, 441.
 Henry, Patrick, in favor of independence, 20; delegate to the Continental Congress, 22.
 Hepburn, G. G., old English classic style, 28.
 Heron, William, his treasonable correspondence with Sir Henry Clinton, 288, 290; letter to Gen. Clinton, March 4, 1782, 320.
 Hewes, Fletcher W., Atlas of American politics, noticed, 431.
 Hill, David J., The Social influence of Christianity, noticed, 253.
 Hoes, Rev. Randall R., genealogical research in America, 160.
 Holt, Charles, editor of the New London Bee, 304; letter to John Adams, Aug. 27, 1820, 305.
 Horn, John, services and descendants of the Marquis de Lotbinière, 314; Pine's portrait of Washington, 335.
 Horsford, Ebene Norton, Discovery of America by the Northmen, noticed, 256.
 Houston, Gen. Samuel, portrait, 345.
 Howley, Rev. M. F. D. D., Ecclesiastical History of New Newfoundland, noticed, 517.
 Huger, Daniel, member of the federal congress, 433.
 Hughson, Shirley Carter, Francis Marion's grave, 469.
 Huguenot Society of America, November meeting, paper by Prof. Henry M. Baird, 512.
 Huguenots exempted from the St. Bartholomew massacre, 249, 336, 337.
 Hunnewell, James F., History of Charlestown, Mass., noticed, 254.
 Huntington, Benjamin, member of the federal congress, 444.
 Hutchinson, Ellen Mackay, Library of American Literature, noticed, 519.
- ILLINOIS, mound builders in, 65, 195.
 Independent Chronicle and Universal Advertiser, newspaper of 1778, 309.
 Indiana Historical Society, pamphlets No. 4, Loughery's defeat, noticed, 427.
 Indians, the mound builders were, 65; Capt. William Moore's expedition against the, 82; incidents of border life with the, 121; Lieut. Beckman's journal of Sullivan's expedition against the, 1779, 198; skin of, tanned for boot legs, 156; hostilities of the, at Marietta, Ohio, 186; in prehistoric times, their location and movements, 192; escape from a burning prairie, 240; the George Catlin gallery of, noticed, 255; attack Fort Massachusetts, 1746, 281; friendly to the German settlers in Texas, 254; the Pueblo, 512.
- Industry, Texas, settlement of, 257.
 Izard, Ralph, member of the federal congress, 441.
- JACKSON, James, member of the federal congress, 444.
 Jamestown, Va., early settlers of, 335.
 Janssen, Frederick W., athletic and aquatic history, noticed, 518.
 Jay, John, delegate to the Continental Congress, 22; author of the Address to the People of Great Britain, 23; ancestry of, 23; member of N. Y. Convention, 27; president of congress, 27; entertains John Adams, 448; secretary of foreign affairs, 449; at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 455.
 Jefferson, Thomas, his charges against the King of Great Britain, 20; delegate to the Continental Congress, 26; drafts the Declaration of independence, 27; bibliography of, noticed, 82; his principles of constitutional government, 402; father of the doctrine of nullification, 402.
 John Anderson and I, noticed, 18.
 Johnson, Andrew, president of U.S., personal recollections of, Charles K. Tuckerman, 39.
 Johnson, Rossiter, History of the War of Secession, 1861-1865, noticed, 430.
 Johnson, William Samuel, member of the federal congress, 440.
 Johnston, Gov. Gabriel, character and historical opinions of, 82.
 Jones, Charles C., Jr., the Declaration of Independence in Savannah, Ga., 202.
 Jonesboro, Tenn., first newspaper west of the Alleghenies printed at, 45; the Emancipator established, 1820, 47.
- KENNEDY, J. H., early days of Mormonism, noticed, 343.
 Kentucky, mound builders in, 196; the pioneer press of, noticed, 343.
 Kentucky Gazette, established, 46.
 Kersbey, Johannes, protests against the calling of a second minister to the Dutch church in N. Y., 154.
 Kieffer, Harry M., the Recollections of a Drummer Boy, noticed, 344.
 King, Horatio, a Boston newspaper of the Revolution, 1778, 309.
 Kingston, N. Y., history of, noticed, 158.
 Klinger, Karl, servant of Prince Solms-Braunfels, portrait, 366.
 Knox, Gen. Henry, to arrange for transports, ordnance and stores, 1781, 58; headquarters of, in N. J., 326; secretary of war, 449; at the inauguration of Washington, 455.
 Knoxville Gazette, established, 45.
 Koester, Theodore, M.D., medical director of the colony at New Braunfels, Texas, portrait, 353.

- Kosciusko, Thaddeus, services in the Revolutionary war, 31; his death, 32.
- LAFAVETTE, Marquis de, his services in the revolutionary war, 32; reports the movements of the British troops, 59, 60.
- Laidlaw, A. H., slavery in N. H., 249.
- Lamb, Mrs. Martha J., tribute to Chief-Judge Morrison Remick Waite, 1; Philadelphia in 1750, 102; Marietta, Ohio, 1788-1888, 165; the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 425, 433; the historian, 426.
- Langdon, John, member of the federal congress, 442.
- La Rochelle, France, 76.
- Lawrence, John, member of the federal congress, 445.
- Leaming, Rev. Jeremiah, sketch of, 28.
- Lee, Arthur, U. S. treasury commissioner, 449.
- Lee, Richard Bland, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Lee, Richard Henry, delegate to the Continental Congress, presents resolution declaring the Colonies free and independent, 27; member of the federal congress, 441; letter of, September 7th, 1782, on the Virginia state navy, 525.
- L'Enfant, Maj. Peter C., at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 452; architect of federal hall, 490.
- Leonard, George, member of the federal congress, 445.
- Le Plongeon, Mrs. Alice D., the Conquest of the Mayas, Montejo in the interior, and foundation of Merida, III., 115.
- Letters: fac-simile letter from Montcalm, 1744, 75; extract of a letter from Abbé Robin, August 4, 1781, giving his estimate of Washington, 137; Washington to Col. Dayton, February 7, 1781, 192; two fac-simile letters, Washington to George Augustine Washington, November 14, 1782, and February 6, 1785, 141, 143; Edgar A. Poe to H. W. Longfellow, 1841, 165; Gen. Tallmadge to Gen. Rufus Putnam, June 20, 1796, 246; Gen. Parsons to Gen. Washington, April 6, 1782, 293; Charles Holt to John Adams, August 27, 1820, 305; reply of John Adams, September 4, 1820, 307; W. Heron to Gen. Clinton, March 4, 1782, 329; Gen. Rufus Putnam to Col. Tallmadge, January 25, 1797, 332; S. R. Mallory, secretary of the confederate navy, September 10, 1861, relative to the purchase of the steamer Trent, 504; Richard Henry Lee, September 7, 1882, on the Virginia state navy, 505.
- Lexington, Mass., battle of, 20; Mass. militia at battle, 410.
- Lima, South America, the women of, 334.
- Lincoln, Abraham, life of, noticed, 86; anecdote of, 459; services of, 507.
- Lincoln, Gen. Benjamin, sent by Washington to inquire into the delay of the Mass. militia, 58.
- Linsley, Rev. Joel H., first president of Marietta college, 190.
- Literature, does it pay? 333.
- Little Germany, Texas, settlement of, 257.
- Livingston, John R., at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 452.
- Livingston, Robert R., delegate to the Continental Congress, one of the committee on the declaration of independence, 27; chancellor of N. Y., 449; administers the oath of office to Washington, 1789, 455.
- Livingston, Walter, U. S. treasury commissioner, 449.
- Livington, Gov. William, correspondence of with Washington saved by his daughter, 178.
- Livy, manuscript of, 248.
- Lockyer, pill maker, his epitaph, 312.
- Lodge, Henry Cabot, the federalist, noticed, 340.
- Looking Backward, a romance, noticed, 341.
- Loring, George B., Vindication of Gen. Samuel Holden Parsons, 286.
- Lotbinière, Marquis de, services of, 314.
- Lowell, Edward J., German bibliography of the revolution, 511.
- Lowell, James Russell, Political Essays, noticed, 253.
- Lundy, Benjamin, establishes the newspaper, the Genius of Universal Emancipation, 47.
- Lutheran Church, the first, in America, 336, 337; in New Netherland, 512.
- Lynde, Judge Simon, ancestry of, 508.
- MCCULLOCH, Hugh. Men and Measures of half a century, noticed, 516.
- McMillan, Rev. John, mentioned, 45.
- Macay, William, member of the federal congress, 441.
- Madison, James, member of the Continental Congress, 35; of the federal congress, 443.
- Mahon, Lord, criticizes Sparks' Writings of Washington, 72, 74.
- Mallory, Stephen R., secretary of the confederate navy, letter of, relative to the purchase of the steamer Trent, 1861, 504.
- Mangum, Prof. A. W., the characters of John Dunn and Benjamin Boothe, the tory lawyers of Rowan, N. C., 82.
- Manuel, Juan, Gov. of La., 78, 150.
- Manuscripts, discovery of ancient, 247.
- Marietta, Ohio, the settlement of, 157; foundation of civil government beyond the Ohio river, 187-1888, Mrs. Martha J. Lamb, 169; views of Mound Square, 171; historic park, 171; Fort Harmar, 177; map of the Ohio purchase, 177; Campus Martius, 180; view of, in 1790, 184; in 1888, 185; college, 189; home of the college president, 191; Marion, Gen. Francis, the grave of, 469.
- Martin Academy, Pa., established, 45.
- Martin, Gen. Joseph, services of, 508.
- Maryland, representatives of, in the federal congress, 441, 443.
- Massachusetts, in the revolutionary war, 20; general court of, requested to call a meeting of the Colonies, 21; appoints delegates, 21, 22; delays in sending militia to the army, 1781, 58; militia arrive from, 60; the militia of, prior to the revolution, 409; reorganize, 1774, 410; at battle of Lexington, 410; Shay's rebellion in, suppressed, 412; representatives of, in the federal congress, 440, 445.
- Mayas, the Conquest of the Mrs. Alice D. Le Plongeon. Montejo in the interior, and foundation of Merida, III., 115.
- Mavence Society, organize to settle a German colony in Texas, 216; purchase land in Texas, 265; list of the members of, 270, 271.
- Mellick, Andrew D., revolutionary houses in N. J., 325.
- Men and Measures of a half a century, noticed, 516.
- Meusebach, Baron von, portrait, 275.
- Middleton, Edmund Smith, the Poet's Awakening, a poem, 415.
- Middleton, Henry, delegate to the Continental Congress, 22.
- Missouri, History of, noticed, 168.
- Mitchel, Ormsby MacKnight, Biography of, noticed, 87.
- Mt. Pleasant, Pa., first church established at, 1776, 45.
- Mohawk Valley, N. Y., early settlers of, 511.
- Montcalm, Marquis de, fac-simile letter of, 1744, 75.
- Moore, Andrew, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Moore, Capt. William, expedition against the Cherokees, 82.
- Mormonism, early days of, noticed, 343.
- Morris, Robert, asked to supply transports to the army, 1781, 58; consults with Washington in regard to number of troops wanted, 60; member of the federal congress, 443.
- Mound-builders were Indians, Cyrus Thomas, 65.
- Muhlenberg, Frederick Augustus, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Muhlenberg, Peter, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Müller, F. Max, Science of Thought, noticed, 168.
- Murat, Joachim, sketch of, 54.
- Muscovites, Britons and, noticed, 86.
- Muskoki Indians, mound-builders, 65.
- NASHVILLE Academy, established, 45.
- New Braunfels, Texas, the city of a Prince, a romantic chapter in Texas history, I, 257; II., 345; settled by Germans, 201; scenes on the Comal river, 259; historic oak tree, 267; beer garden, 1845, 273; dramatic club, 1850, 277; home of Hermann Seele, 349; Roeder's mill, 359; views of the people's festival, 362, 363; ruins of the Sophienberg, 386, 365.
- New England, a new France in, Prosper Bender, 387; first railroad in, 428.
- New England Primer, 1690, Clement Ferguson, 148.

INDEX

- Newfoundland, ecclesiastical history of, noticed, 517.
- New Hampshire, slavery in, 249, 335; representatives of, in the federal congress, 442, 444.
- New Hartford, N. Y., centennial of, 146.
- New Haven Colony Historical Society, papers of the, vol. iv., noticed, 86.
- New Jersey, revolutionary houses in, 325; representatives of, in the federal congress, 442, 444.
- New Jersey Historical Society, September meeting, paper entitled, Mrs. Martha J. Lamb, the historian, by Mrs. Frederick H. Pierson, 465; Rev. Jedediah Buckingham, the first preacher at Orange Mountain by Stephen Wicks, 426.
- New Orleans, La., slave markets in, 61; customs of the people, 62.
- Newport, R. I., militia to garrison, 1781, 59; Scandinavian church at, 336; French fleet at, 419.
- New York appoints delegates to the Continental Congress, 22; delegates do not vote for the Declaration of Independence, 28; lack of troops for the defense of, 1781, 59; representatives of, in the federal congress, 445.
- New York Chamber of Commerce, erect statue of Washington, 459.
- New York city, merchants of, call for a meeting of the colonies, 21; Washington anxious to attack, 1781, 58; British troops to reinforce, 59; British fleet and troops arrive at, 60; the remonstrance of the Dutch church against the protest of Samuel Slater, Johannes De Peyster, and Johannes Kerbeye, 1608, 152; the protest of the latter against the calling of a second minister to the Dutch church, 154; petition of the inhabitants of, prohibiting the use of fire-arms, 1703, 245; relics of the battle of Harlem Heights, 334; first Lutheran church in, 336; the inauguration of Washington, 1789, in, 433; Congress meet, 424, 425; cost of Federal Hall, 424; view of Federal Hall, 439; Washington's residence in, 454, 455; preparations for the reception of Washington, 446; his arrival and reception, 450; order of exercises for the inauguration of Washington, 452; the procession at the inaugural, 453; the city illuminated after the inauguration, 456; the statue of Washington in Wall street, 457; the Lutheran church in, 519; costumes worn at the inaugural ball, 513.
- New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, May meeting, paper on genealogical research in America, by Rev. Randall R. Hoes, 465; removal of, 512; October meeting, paper on the Lutheran church among the Dutch in New Netherlands, by Rev. F. F. Buermeyer, 512; November meeting, paper on the Pueblo Indians, by L. Bradford Prince.
- New York Historical Society, June meeting, paper on the Fairfaixes of America, by Mrs. Burton N. Harrison, 86; October meeting, paper on the inauguration of Washington, 1789, by Mrs. Martha J. Lamb, 425; furniture of the federal congress the property of, 443; the Washington chair in the, 446; section of the railing of Federal Hall in the, 455; November meeting, paper on the German bibliography of the revolution, by Edward J. Lowell, 511.
- Niagara, diary of a trip from N. Y. to, 1829, 315, 329, 489.
- Nicholson, Commodore James, mentioned, 442; in command of barge that conveys Washington to N. Y., 1789, 449.
- North Carolina, appoints delegates to the Continental Congress, 21; the objection to the Federal Constitution in the convention of 1788, 82; dueling in, 82; Home Guards in, 1864, 82; the V. M. C. A. movement in, 82; history of the state of Franklin, 82; mound builders in, 66, 194.
- North Carolina Historical Society, reorganized, officers, papers, on the N. C. Convention of 1788, by K. P. Battle; the characters of John Dunn and Benjamin Booth, the tory lawyers of Rowan, by Prof. A. W. Mangum; dueling in N. C. by Stephen B. Weeks; Gov. Gabriel Johnston and his opponents, by Prof. G. T. Winston; historical opinions of Gov. Johnston, by Claudius Dockery; conduct and motives of the Regulators, by R. P. Battle; Capt. William Moore's expedition against the Cherokees, by J. W. Wilson; William A. Smith's account of his election as major of Home Guards, 1864; history of the state of Franklin, by Prof. E. Alexander; the Young Men's Christian Association in N. C., by Stephen B. Weeks, 82; September meeting, papers on N. C. and the Federal Constitution, by K. P. Battle; Blackbeard, the Corsair of Carolina, by Stephen B. Weeks, 425.
- North-West Territory, map of the, 1744; map of the Ohio purchase, 1777.
- Norton, Rev. John, his account of the assault on Fort Massachusetts, 1746, 283.
- Notes, July—Lord Ellenborough and the bandboxes, 6; a sketch of Charles Gratot, 76; La Rochelle, France, 76; autograph of Button Gwinnett, 77.
- August—Queer leather and strange use, 156; Zacatecas, 156; Marietta, Ohio, 157; an old advertisement, 177; historic Kingston, 158.
- September—Washington as a dancer, 247; death of Rev. George Robert Gleig, 247; ancient manuscripts, 247; anecdote of Col. Wilkes, 248; character of Edward Gibbon, 248; political career of, 249.
- October—Sheridan's memory, 333; does literature pay, 333; the women of Lima, Peru, 334; the battle of Harlem Heights, 334; the Calvert papers, 334.
- November—Beginnings of American science, 422; paper-ruling, 422; services of Lewis Cass, 422;
- Puritan gentlemen, 423; Whittier's advice to a boy, 423.
- December—Services of S. P. Chase and Abraham Lincoln, 507; tariff literature, 507; Sir Henry Vane, the boy governor, 508. Noyes, Isaac P., our weather system, 426.
- Nullification Act, Jefferson the author of the, 402.
- OHIO, mound builders in, 65, 66, 193; incidents of border life in, Louis Wetzel, E. W. B. Caning, 121; history of, noticed, 517.
- Ohio Company, origin of the, 176; 327; map of the land purchased by the, 177.
- Ohio River, slavery prohibited in the territory northwest of the, 33; sketch of and origin of the disputes regarding, 175, 235.
- Oneida Co., N. Y., the geological history of, 81.
- Oneida Historical Society, May meeting, paper on the geological history of Oneida Co., by Rev. A. P. Brigham, 81; centennial of New Hartford, N. Y., under the auspices of, 81, 146; October meeting, proposed papers on the Mohawk valley, 511.
- Orange Mountain, N. J., the first preacher at, 426.
- Orangeburg, Va., company roster of troops from, in the revolution, 416.
- Original Documents, fac-simile letter of Montcalm, 1744, 75; two fac-simile unpublished letters of Washington to George Augustine Washington, Nov. 14, 1782, and Feb. 6, 1785, 141, 143; petition of the minister and elders of the Dutch church in N. Y., 1608, against the protest of Samuel States, Johannes De Peyster, and Johannes Kerbeye, 152; petition of the inhabitants of N. Y. prohibiting the use of fire-arms, 1703, 245; letters from W. Heron to Sir Henry Clinton, March 4, 1782, 229; Gen. Rufus Putnam to Col. Tallmadge, January 25, 1707, 322; petition of Mary Ellis for the collection of a debt, 1700, 420; the purchase of the steamer Trent in 1861, by the Confederate States, 304; the Virginia state navy, 1782, 505.
- Osborn, Charles, establishes abolition societies in Tenn., 1814, 46.
- Osgood, Samuel, U. S. treasury commissioner, 449.
- Otis, James, in favor of independence, 20; anecdote of, 107.
- Otis, Samuel A., secretary of the senate of the federal Congress, 443; at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 425.
- Oyster Bay, L. I., settlement of, 158; Baptist church at, 159.
- PAGE, John, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Paine, Robert Treat, delegate to the Continental Congress, 22.
- Paine, Silas H., the river Ohio, an English view of it in 1757, contributed by, 235.
- Paper ruling machine, origin of, 249, 422.
- Parker, Mrs. Jane Marsh, the opening of the Genesee Country, 161.

- Parker, Josiah, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Parsons, Gen. Samuel H., first judge of the Northwest territory, 177; ancestry and services of, 178; describes social life in Marietta, Ohio, 183; vindication of, George B. Loring, 285; letter to Gen. Washington, April 6, 1792, 293; extracts from the letters of, 298, 301.
- Partridge, George, member of the federal congress, 445.
- Patterson, William, member of the federal congress, 442.
- Patton, Jacob Harris, Reconstruction, 204.
- Peale, Rembrandt, portraits of Washington and his wife, by, 433, 485.
- Peabody, Andrew P., Harvard Reminiscences, noticed, 255.
- Pendleton, Edmund, delegate to the continental congress, 22.
- Pennsylvania, representatives of, in the federal congress, 443, 444.
- Perrin, William Henry, the Pioneer Press of Ky., noticed, 343.
- Peters, Richard, member of the Board of War, consults with Washington regarding the number of troops wanted, 60.
- Phelan, James, History of Tennessee, noticed, 342.
- Philadelphia, Pa., the continental congress at, 17, 21; in 1750, Mrs. Martha J. Lamb, 204; ground rents in, 150.
- Pickering, Timothy, mentioned, 442.
- Pierson, Mrs. Frederick H., Mrs. Martha J. Lamb the historian, 426.
- Pine, Robert Edge, the portrait of Washington, painted by, 335, 509, 510.
- Pittsburgh Gazette, established, 46.
- Plimpton, George A., the benefactions of Henry Winkley, 496.
- Plutarch, manuscript of, 248.
- Poe, Edgar A., letter to Henry W. Longfellow, 184, 162.
- Poet's Awakening, the, Edmund Smith Middleton, 415.
- Political Essays, noticed, 252.
- Politics, the study of, noticed, 342.
- Polk, James K., life of, noticed⁴, 165.
- Power, Rev. James, establishes the first church at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., 1796, 45.
- Prescott, William H., first literary venture of, 165; literary life, 251.
- Prince, John T., improvements on the ruling machine, 244.
- Prince, L. Bradford, the Pueblo Indians, 512.
- Provincial congress, organized, 410.
- Provost, Rt. Rev. Samuel, elected chaplain to congress, 451; conducts divine service in St. Paul's church, before Washington and congress, 1780, 456, 499.
- Public Libraries, value of, 163.
- Pueblo Indians, the, 512.
- Pulaski, Count, services in the revolutionary war, 31; his death, 31.
- Puritan gentlemen, 423; age and rule, noticed, 432.
- Putnam, Gen. Rufus, portrait, 175; one of the founders and superintendent of the Ohio Company, 176; home of, in Rutland, Mass., 327; letter to Col. Tallmadge, January 25, 1797, 328.
- Quakers, in Philadelphia, 1750, 104. Querries.—July—Amaraca, 78; ancestors of Benedict Arnold, 78; Juan Manuel, 78.
- August.—Famous authors, 158; the oldest statue in the world, 158.
- September.—Slavery in New Hampshire, 249; the Huguenots, 249; ships and troops at the beginning of the Revolution, 249.
- October.—Pine's portrait of Washington, 335; names of the first settlers of Jamestown, Va., 335.
- November.—Thirteen not an unlucky number, 424.
- December.—Services of Gen. Benjamin French and Gen. Joseph Martin, 508; ancestry of Simon Lynde and Francis Willoughby, 508.
- Quintillianus, Marcus Fabius, manuscript works of, 247.
- RANDOLPH, Edmund, Life and papers of, noticed, 516.
- Randolph, Peyton, delegate to the continental congress, 22; elected president of congress, 22; called the father of his country, 494.
- Ransom, William L., old advertisement contributed by, 157.
- Read, George, member of the federal congress, 442.
- Read, Gen. J. Meredith, Washington's diary for August, 1881, 56.
- Reconstruction of the U. S., Jacob Harris Patton, 204.
- Replies.—July—Ancestry of Bishop Leaming, 78; Elizabeth Canning, 79; Hon. Peter John Van Berkel and his daughter, 80; did Washington eat peas with a knife, 80.
- August.—Local history, 158; Juan Manuel De Salcedo, 159; ground rents, 150.
- September.—Ancestry of Elizabeth Canning, 250; the oldest statue in the world, 250; common schools, education in England, 250.
- October.—Slavery in N. H., 335; the Huguenots, 336, 337; congregations and churches, 336; ships and troops at the beginning of the Revolution, 337.
- November.—Rev. Lemuel Fiske's sermon on the death of Joshua Spooner, 424.
- December.—East Tennessee one hundred years ago, 501; Washington's portrait by Pine, 500, 510; thirteen not an unlucky number, 510.
- Rhode Island, Washington asks for militia to defend Newport, 50.
- Rhode Island Historical Society, July meeting, reports and donations, 162; October meeting, paper on our weather system, by Isaac P. Noyes, 426; memorial on the death of Rowland G. Hazard, 511.
- Rivington, James, mentioned, 60.
- Robertson, Gen. James, early settler in East Tennessee, 43.
- Robertson, Lt.-Gov. R. S., the constitution and the ordinance of 1789, their relation to Education, 224.
- Robin, Rev. Claude C., chaplain in the French army in America, his estimate of Washington, 137.
- Rochester, Col. Nathaniel, pioneer of Genesee, N. Y., 161.
- Rochester Historical Society, June meeting, paper on the opening of the Genesee country, by Mrs. Jane Marsh Parker, 161.
- Rodney, Caesar, delegate to the continental congress, 22.
- Roeder's Mill, Texas, view of, 359.
- Rollins, George W., Pine's portrait of Washington, 510.
- Roman Catholic Church, first erected, 326.
- Ruling Machine, origin and history of, 242, 422.
- Rumph, Capt. Jacob, roster of troops commanded by, in the revolution, 416.
- Rutland, Mass., home of Gen. Putnam in, 327.
- Rutledge, Edward, delegate to the continental congress, 22.
- Ryan, Daniel J., History of Ohio, noticed, 517.
- ST. BARTHOLOMEW Massacre, 340, 336, 337.
- St. Bris, Thomas de, discovery of the name of America, noticed, 82.
- St. Clair, gov. Arthur, portrait, 160; first gov. of the Northwest territory, 170; ancestry of, 174; family of, 184; at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 455.
- St. Paul's Church, N. Y. city, Washington and Congress attend divine service in, 1780, 459, 490.
- Salem, Tenn., first church established at, 44, 45.
- San Domingo, the French colony of, its rise and fall, E. W. Gilliam, 471.
- Sargent, Winthrop, agent of the Ohio company, 176.
- Saratoga, N. Y., strength of the British army at the battle of, 412.
- Savannah, Ga., the declaration of independence in, Charles C. Jones, 77, 202.
- Scammell, Col. Alexander, light troops of the army placed under the orders of, 60.
- Schoonmaker, Marius, history of Kingston, N. Y., noticed, 158.
- Schurenham, James, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Schuyler, John, History of the Society of the Cincinnati, noticed, 518.
- Schuyler, Gen. Philip, superintends the construction of boats for Washington, 1781, 37.
- Scott, Thomas, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Scruggs, William L., Unconscious Heresies, 400.
- Seelye, Herman, private secretary of Prince Solms-Braunfels, portrait, 347.
- Sevey, Joshua, member of the federal congress, 443.
- Shakespeare, William, female characters in the plays of, 147, 328; portrayed by himself, noticed, 255.
- Shawnee Indians, mound-builders, 62, 68, 104.
- Shays, Daniel, rebellion of, suppressed, 412.
- Sheldon, Louise Vescelius, Yankee girls in Zululand, noticed, 167.
- Shepard, Edward M., life of Martin Van Buren, noticed, 340.

- Sheridan, Gen. Philip, memory of, 333.
- Sherman, Roger, delegate to the continental congress, 22; one of the committee on the declaration of independence, 27; member of the federal congress, 444; at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 455.
- Shirley, Gov. William, services of, 360; portrait, 370.
- Shreve, Col. Israel, retires from the army, 130.
- Sinnickson, Thomas, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Six Nations Journal of Lieut. Beekman of the expedition of Gen. Sullivan against the 1779, 128.
- Slade, D.D., M.D., the site of old Fort Massachusetts, 281.
- Slavery, prohibited in the territory north-west of Ohio river, 33; abolition in Tenn., 46; slave markets in New Orleans, 61; in N. H., 249, 335.
- Smith, Rev. Henry, second president of Marietta College, 190.
- Smith, J. A., Gen. Rufus Putnam's house in Rutland, 327.
- Smith, Rev. Joseph, establishes a church at Washington, Pa., 1779.
- Smith, William, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Smith, Col. William S., at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 452.
- Society of the Cincinnati, history of, noticed, 518.
- Solms-Braunfels, Prince of, portrait, 263; organizes German colony to settle in Texas, 264; ancestry of, 567; his report of settlement of colony, 271; view of the house of, 365.
- South Carolina appoints delegates to the continental congress, 21, 23; roster of troops from, in the revolution, 416; representatives of, in the federal congress, 441, 443.
- Southwick, England, epitaph in graveyard of, 312.
- Spain, a chapter of the history of, in relation to American affairs, 3. L. M. Curry, 48.
- Sparks, Jared, pioneer work of, Herbert B. Adams, 69; his services to American history, 73.
- Spooner, Mrs. Bathsheba, executed, 424.
- Spooner, Joshua, sermon on the death of, 313, 424.
- Staats, Abraham, house of, headquarters of Baron Steuben, 326.
- Stamp Act, passed, 1765; repealed, 409.
- States, Samuel, protests against the calling of a second minister to the Dutch Church in N. Y., 134.
- Statue, the oldest, 158, 250.
- Stedman, Edmund Clarence, library of American Literature, noticed, 310.
- Stephens, W. Hudson, paper-ruling, 429; letter of Richard Henry Lee, 1788, contributed by, 405.
- Steuben, Simon, Constitutional History of the U. S., noticed, 366.
- Steuben, Baron, his services in the revolutionary war, 32; headquarters in N. J., 326; at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 455.
- Stevens, Thomas, Around the World on a Bicycle, Vol. II., noticed, 431.
- Stoddard, R. H., Decoration Day, a poem, 143.
- Stoddard, William B., Lives of Presidents Harrison, Tyler and Polk, noticed, 165.
- Stone, Michael, member of the federal Congress, 443.
- Stone, William L., mentioned, 39; autograph letter of Washington, contributed by, 130.
- Stone, Col. William Leete, portrait, 257; trip from N. Y. to Niagara in 1809; unpublished diary of, I., 315; II., 392; III., 489.
- Strong, Caleb, member of the federal Congress, 443.
- Stuart, Alexander H. H., narrative of the movement in Va., 1865, to re-establish peaceful relations between the Northern and Southern States, noticed, 87.
- Sturges, Jonathan, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Sullivan, Gen. John, journal of Lieut. Beekman of the expedition of, against the six nations of Indians, 1779, 128.
- Sullivan, Margaret F., History of Mexico, noticed, 254.
- Sylvester, Peter, member of the federal congress, 445.
- Symmes, John Symmes, appointed judge of the Northwest territory, 178.
- TARIFF Literature, 507.
- Teach, Edward, the corsair of Carolina, 125.
- Tennessee, state, one hundred years ago, Joseph S. Fowler, 43; 509; mound-builders in, 65, 66, 194; history of, noticed, 342.
- Tennessee Historical Society, annual meeting, election of officers and members, 81.
- Texas, the city of a Prince, a romantic chapter in the history of, I., 257; II., 245. Les C. Hardy, scenes on the Coastal river, 259; historic oak tree, 267; beer garden, 1825; dramatic club, 1850, 277; house of Herman Seel, 349; Roeder's mill, 359; views of the people's festival, 362, 363; ruins of the Sophienberg, 1886, 365.
- Thacher, George, member of the federal congress, 445.
- Thirteen, not an unlucky number, 424, 510.
- Thomas, Cyrus, the mound-builders were Indians, 65; Indian tribes in pre-historic times, their location and movements, 193.
- Thompson, Col. William R., regiment commanded by, in the Revolution, 416.
- Thomson, Charles, secretary of congress, portrait, 437.
- Thought, science of, noticed, 168.
- Thompson, Hamilton B., Bibliotheca Jeffersoniana, noticed, 87.
- Trall, Florence, Studies in Criticism, noticed, 341.
- Trees and Tree-Planting, noticed, 344.
- Trent, steamer, purchased by the confederate states, 504.
- Trumbull, Jonathan, member of the federal congress, 444.
- Tucker, Thomas S., member of the federal congress, 443.
- Tuckerman, Charles K., personal recollections of President Johnson, 39; Gen. Grant, 109; Pine's portrait of Washington, 509.
- Tupper, Gen. Benjamin, founder of the Ohio company, 176.
- Tupper, Maj. John, at battle of Bunker Hill, 492.
- Tupper, Martin F., his admiration and friendship for the American people, 495.
- Tyler, John, life of, noticed, 165.
- UNITED States, the continental Congress, 17; origin of the declaration of independence, 20; action of congress on the declaration, 27, 28, 29; articles of confederation, 32; the ordinance of 1787, 33; slavery prohibited in, 34; the federal constitution ratified, 34; an Englishman's pocket note-book in 1838, what he saw in, 61, 121; constitutional history of, the, noticed, 165; foundation of civil government beyond the Ohio river, 169; the declaration of independence in Savannah, Ga., 202; reconstruction of the, 204; the constitution and the ordinance of 1787, their relation to education, 224; constitution of, noticed, 340; school history of, the, noticed, 344; the treaty of Ghent, 372; the French emigration from Canada, to the, 387; Jeffersonian principles of constitutional government, 400; the doctrine of nullification, 402; atlas of American politics, 1789-1888, noticed, 431; the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 433; organization of the federal congress, 435, 439; tariff literature, 507; men and measures of half a century, noticed, 516.
- Universal Magazine, fac-simile of title page, July, 1757, 236.
- VALENTINE'S Hill, N. Y., to be fortified, 1781, 59, 60.
- Van Arman, John, lawyer, of Chicago, incident of, 144.
- Van Buren, Martin, political career of, 249; life of, noticed, 340.
- Van Cortlandt, Mrs. Pierre, petition to the Earl of Bellomont in 1689, 155; petition of Mary Ellis, 1790, contributed by, 420.
- Van der Veer, Jacobus, house of, headquarters of Gen. Knox, 326.
- Van Dyke, John C., how to judge of a picture, noticed, 168.
- Van Horne, Philip, entertainments at the house of, during the revolution, 262.
- Van Rensselaer, M., relics of the battle of Harlem Heights, 334.
- Van Veghten, Derrick, house of, headquarters of Gen. Greene, 1779, 325.
- Vane, Sir Henry, the boy governor, 508.
- Varnum, Gen. Joseph B., 178; autobiography of, 405.
- Varnum, James M., autobiography of Gen. Joseph B. Varnum, contributed by, 405.
- Vera Cruz, journal of a visit to, 1828, 123.

Virginia, in the revolutionary war, 20; appoints delegates to the Continental Congress, 22; the first to introduce question of independence, 26; narrative of the movement in 1865, to re-establish peaceful relations between the Northern and Southern States, noticed, 87; representatives of, in the federal congress, 441, 443; state navy, 1782, 505.

Virginia Company, of London, abstract of the proceedings of the, 1610-1624, noticed, 167.

Virginia Historical Society, collections Vol. I. new series, noticed, 167.

WADSWORTH, Jeremiah, member of the federal congress, 444. Waite, Chief Justice Henry Matson, portrait, 7.

Waite, Chief Justice Morrison Remick, portrait, 1, 15; tribute to Mrs. Martha F. Lamb, his home in Washington, 1, 3; interior views of the residence of, 5, 10.

War of 1861, personal recollections of President Johnson, 39; narrative of the movement in Va., 1865, to re-establish peaceful relations between the Northern and Southern States, noticed, 87; France and the Confederate navy, 1862-1868, noticed, 167; reconstruction of the Union, 204; recollections of a drummer boy, noticed, 344; anecdotes of Abraham Lincoln, 419; short history of Secession, 1861-1865, noticed, 430; the purchase of the steamer Trent by the confederate states, 1861, 504.

Ward, Gen. Artemus, senior major-general in the army, 1725, 24.

Ward, J. Q. A., statue of Washington by, 450.

Washington Academy, Pa., established, 1787, 45.

Washington chair, sketch of the, 447.

Washington Co. Pa., first church established at, 44, 45.

Washington Co., Tenn., first church established at, 44, 45.

Washington, George, delegate to the Continental Congress, 22; appointed general of the army, by Congress, 24; character of, 25, 26; resigns from congress, 26; diary of, for August, 1783, 56; anxious to attack New York, 1781, cause of the delay, 58; reconnoitres the roads and country in Westchester, 59; asks for militia to defend Newport, R. I., 59; Spark's writings of, 69; Lord Mahon criticises the writings of, 72, 74; eats green peas with a knife, 80; unpublished portrait of, 137; Abbé Robin's estimate of, 137; letter of, to Col. Dayton, Feb. 7, 1781, 139; two facsimile letters of, to George Augustine Washington, Nov. 14th, 1782, and Feb. 6th, 1785, 141, 142; favors the settlement of Marietta, Ohio, 157; as a dancer, 247, 325; Pine's portrait of, 335, 509, 510; Peele's portrait of, 433, 485; the inauguration of, 1789, 433; receives the unanimous vote for president of U. S., 437; informed officially of his election, 437; committee to escort him to N. Y., 445; residence of, in N. Y., 445; his journey from Mt. Vernon to N. Y., 446; dispute as to the proper way he should be addressed, 446; his arrival and reception at N. Y., 449; takes the oath of office, 455; proclaimed president of U. S., 456; attends St. Paul's church, 456, 499; statue of, 457; services and character of, 460; contemporary accounts of the inauguration of, 498. Washington, Mrs. Martha, portrait, 433.

Watauga Pioneers, settlement of the, 43.

Waterbury, Gen. David, Jr., commands Conn. state troops, 1781, 58.

Waters, Robert, William Shakespeare, portrayed by himself, noticed, 255.

Watts, Mrs. John, mentioned, 441.

Weathersfield, Conn., constitution adopted by, 1638-9, 44.

Webb, Gen. Samuel B., at the inauguration of Washington, 1789, 452.

Webster, Daniel, the character of Washington, 26; anecdote of, 428.

Weeks, Stephen H., dueling in N. C., 82; history of the Y. M. C. A. movement in N. C., 82; Blackbeard, the corsair of Carolina, 425; services of Gens. French and Martin, 508.

Westmoreland Co., Pa., first church established at, 1776, 45.

West Point, N. Y., troops ordered from, 1881, 60.

Wetzell, Louis, incidents of border life of, 121.

Whipple, Edwin Percy, historical literature, 251.

White, Alexander, letters of, on the organization of the federal congress, 435, 436; member of the federal congress, 443.

Whittier, John G., his advice to a boy, 423.

Wicks, Stephen, the Rev. Jedediah Buckingham, the first preacher at Orange Mountain, 426.

Wightman, Rev. Charles S., the Baptist church at Oyster Bay, L. I., 159.

Wilkes, Col., of the Buckinghamshire militia, anecdote of, 248.

Willoughby, Jonathan, ancestry of, 508.

Wilmington, Del., first Lutheran church in, 337.

Wilmet, C., the oldest statue in the world, 250.

Wilson, Thomas, the Treaty of Ghent, 372.

Wilson, J. W., Captain William Moore's expedition against the Cherokees, 82.

Wilson, Gen. James Grant, American Biography, noticed, 87, 520.

Windsor, Conn., adopts a constitution, 1638-9, 44.

Wingate, Paine, member of the federal congress, 442.

Winkley, Henry, benefactions of, 496.

Winsor, Justin, Boston in 1741; and Gov. Shirley, 368; Narrative and Critical History of America, vol. V., noticed, 429.

Winston, Prof. G. T., characters of Gov. Gabriel Johnston and his opponents, 82.

Winthrop, Benjamin R., mentioned, 446.

Wisconsin, mound builders in, 200.

Wisconsin State Historical Society, collections, vol. X., noticed, 85.

Wright, Marcus J., revolutionary troops, 416.

Writing, early attempts at, 427.

Wynkoop, Henry, member of the federal congress, 444.

YANKEE Girls in Zulu Land, noticed, 167.

ZACATECAS. Mexico, 156.

Zane, Elizabeth, mentioned, 121.

Zulu Land, Yankee Girls in, noticed, 167.